LEARN HOW TO BREW AT THE GASC'S HOME BREWERY!

The German American Social Club (GASC) has completed its own home brewery, thanks to Andy Gast's efforts. Beer making classes are now offered exclusively to Lifetime, Regular, or Associate members of a Florida German club who are aged 21 or older. The first session costs $50, with repeat classes at $20 each; different beers are made different months. We follow the German Beer Purity Law when making our beers.

Classes take place monthly on a Sundays at 9:00 a.m. and last until late afternoon or early evening, depending on the beer type. The fee covers the class session and all necessary ingredients. Attendees have the opportunity to enjoy the brewed beer (ready in 3-4 weeks) at no extra charge.

The microbrewery is reserved for these classes and is not available for rent or loan. To enroll in the next class, contact Andy Gast at 305-213-9157.
